Known rituals dedicated to Veilskarvard

The Veilgift Exchange

Celebrating the Winter Solstice and honoring the Sibling Wolves—Harbinger of Death, Naethrandi & Veilwarden, Veilskarvard. During the celebration, all bring a gift to a communal pile and then randomly pick a gift from it, symbolizing the gift of sustained life through the winter when the veil between worlds is thin.

Bloodmoon Passage

On nights of the blood moon, new followers of Veilskarvard undertake a journey through a prepared path marked with wolf tracks and moon motifs. At the end, they present offerings of Pasque Flowers and Skullcap Mushrooms at a sacred shrine. The ceremony includes a personal vow to uphold the values of balance and protection, with the path symbolizing the harmony of order and chaos.

Twilight Balance Ritual

At dusk, followers perform the Twilight Balance Ritual to honor Veilskarvard's equilibrium. Participants gather in a sacred grove and arrange offerings of Ethereal Crystals, Pasque Flowers, and Black Trumpet Mushrooms in a symmetrical pattern. The ritual includes silent meditation, followed by a forest run symbolizing balance between chaos and order. The offerings are left as tribute, concluding with communal reflection as a pack.

The Mark

At twilight under a full moon, a chosen follower becomes a Warden. The Warden invokes:

"Veilskarvard, Keeper of the Veil and Warden of the Unseen, hear this Oath. By the light that fades and the shadow that endures, I bind this soul to your eternal watch."

The chosen recites the Oath of the Warden:

“I vow to shield the secrets of the Veil, to guard against its misuse, and to honor the balance between shadow and light.”

A candle infused with Veil-touched essence is lit, symbolizing the interdependence of light and shadow. The flame is snuffed, leaving soot on the flesh. A pouch of ceremonial ash and ground Skullcap Mushroom powder is presented, and a small amount is inscribed on the forehead in the shape of Veilskarvard's symbol. The Warden kneels, followed by:

“RISE AS A WARDEN OF VEILSKARVARD. Welcome to the pack... (Brother OR Sister)...”
